Hello again, Rod,

I have assigned to you two 30-minute presentations that have been bundled together into a single 60 minute timeslot. The sessions are both by IU folks. They are:

204 Integration of a Decision-Making Process and a Learning Process in a Newly Formed Leadership Team for Systemic Transformation of a School District

This study sought to improve some of the process guidelines described in the Guidance System for Transforming Education (GSTE) by using the qualitative research methodology descri...

Presenters: Kurt Richter, Indiana University

633 What Not To Do in Systemic Change: Lessons from a Middle School Change Process

Change is a difficult and treacherous process. It frequently generates divisiveness and resistance. However, the change process is even more difficult when it attempts to bring a...

Presenters: Charles Reigeluth, Indiana University Bloomington, Department of Instructional Technology; Kurt Richter, Indiana University

Thanks again for your willingness to serve as a facilitator
